

Nuclear Waste Cube

If we generated all of the electricity for one person's lifetime energy demands using nuclear power, we could approximately fill the cube with the amount of spent nuclear fuel remaining.

Materials: scissors, glue or tape

Directions: Using the diagram as a guide, cut out and fold the pattern to make a cube.

(Source: Nuclear Regulatory Commission website: <http://www.nrc.gov/reading-rm/basic-ref/teachers/waste-cube.html>)